July

2017

Welcome Peninsula Pedallers' to the July Periodical edition. (Gary Moranda –Editor)

Great Ocean Road Tour 18th September 2017

The Great Ocean Road is world-renowned for its dramatic seascapes and beautiful bushland with cascading waterfalls, rainforest walks and ancient fern gullies on one side and on the seaside magnificent surf beaches, high cliffs and incredible rugged coastal scenery and landscapes.

Experience this wild region of Australia as you journey over 300 km's from Port Fairy to Melbourne. Indulge yourself on a cycle tour that caters for moderate to advanced cyclist with optional cycling distances designed to suit each level of experience.

This tour offers generous amounts of time for sightseeing and enjoying the attractions the Great Ocean Road offers. All sections of each day are optional, and there is no obligation to cycle each one, your support person will always be available to look after you.

A SPECIAL OFFER FOR OUR CLUB

We are writing to your club to extend an invitation to your group to stay with us at Bright Freeburgh Caravan Park the next time you visit the Victorian high country.

Our park is one of Victoria's most spacious parks, is only a short 7kms from tourist mecca Bright and is perfectly located for your next visit to the snowfields, cycling trip, mountain biking adventure, bushwalking, or simply sightseeing and exploring around this spectacular region.

We have extra large shady powered and unpowered camping sites as well as a number of cosy cabins suitable for 2-7 guests.

We also have a large communal camp kitchen area with BBQs, seating, fridge and TV perfect for your group to congregate together and fire pits are available for you to sit around and relax.

We have a special offer for your club members to stay on powered sites for $25 a night (minimum of 4 nights) and if they stay 7 nights or more they'll also get one night free.

Bookings must be made by 1st of September, so give us a call to avoid disappointment and to secure your next group holiday.

Please don't hesitate to contact our friendly staff on 03 5750 1306 or info@caravanparkbright.com.au if you have any questions or would like more information.
